Zamindari

The Petitioner (with 1 encls.).
Date 1-7-97 note: The petitioner's case has been finally disposed of by the Govt. of India in 1885 & no new facts have been now adduced, which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case. It will be seen from the previous papers, that the property claimed was confiscated by Govt. in 1799 for the rebellious conduct of the petitioner's ancestors.

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

In September 1896 the pati. presented a petition to Govt. praying to be put in possession of the Panchalakurichi zamindari, and was asked to produce copies of the orders of the lower courts in the matter. Thereupon the pati on the 11th February last presents a petition to the Collr. praying to be put in possession of the zamindari in accordance with proceedings No. 16 of 16.1.1821. In reply to this he receives the enclosed endorsement. The pati. therefore prays that G.O. No. 260 of 25.9.1882. referred to in this endt. may be cancelled, that the records in the case may be perused, that this petition may be sent to the Collr. for enquiry, that the pati may be put in possession of the zamindari in question & that the income from the ~~zamindari~~ zamindari for the current year may be paid to him after payment of the Kist due to Govt. thereon.
