PETITION

REVENUE DEPT

To,

His Excellency.
The Governor
Madras

May it please your Excellency,

That the humble petition of V. C. Ramasamy Iyer, native of Trichinopoly humbly begs to Sheweth,

That I dared to lay before your Excellency some few lines about my poor circumstances, as I will state before my Family God.

That your Excellency Could not find a single miserable man in this world like myself.

That I have nothing to maintain, myself and my poor old parents either in the Shape of money, or in the Shape of land, and with all this I was deserted by my wife, leaving behind her a child some 2 months old.

That this humble petition was washed off by my tears, as it foretold me of my success of this attempt.

That I have to pay to nurse for the unfortunate child Rs 10 per mensum with all my difficulties, and I would be very happy if this child also gone to heaven with its mother.

That in case if I would marry a Second time, a Such Kind of marriage Could not be performed at least without Rs 700.

That I ventured to ask your Excellency why your Excellency's money could not form a substancial treasure for my miserable family.

That I am now in need of your Excellency's favour, in shape of appointing me in a suitable post, so as to support my helpless family.

That one Koramben Amien in Peruvalai channel Head Sluice on Salary Rs 25. in Trichinopoly Taluq, is all vacant and each and every big officials such as Tahsildar and Deputy Collector, are in opinion of appointing their own men and there is none to protect myself and my poor family, by appointing me in such a suitable post.

That the abovementioned two subjects (i.e.) one pecuniary assistance for my second marriage and two a post for supporting my miserable family, are not a great thing for your Excellency's gracious bestowment.

That I petitioned this humble petition to your Excellency with the full hope of my success in this attempt and I think that this would not be fruitful as I petitioned several times to your Excellency's subordinates.

That your Excellency's noble order would clear off mine and my poor motherless baby's tears as in the same way that the darkness would not stand in the way of the rising Sun.

That at last I most humbly entreat your Excellency for my giving trouble and wasting some minutes in your Excellency's precious hours.

May it please your Excellency
your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servt
V. C. Ramasamy Iyer
