Passing orders on the office note from the Supt Govt Press: Submitting a list of official publications for quarter ending 31-3-97 and forwarding Copy of list to Govt

For Orders

The Financial Dept has noted that the Superintendent, Govt Press, has failed to give due intimation of certain publications — of which those mentioned in para 2 of the order are some — as required by Fo. 5 Fin! Dy 2 Jany 1896. Two copies of the books mentioned appear to have been sent to the India office. But, the orders, of which a brief precis is given in fo. 208 Fin! Dy 19 March '95, direct that 2 copies of all publications, other than ephemeral ones, shall be sent to the Secy of State. The second publication mentioned within is ~~but~~ ephemeral, but ~~as such~~ it seems desirable ~~that copies of the first publication be~~ ~~subscribed and to that end a copy of~~ the Report and Working Scheme of the Nilambur Teak Plantations should also be
