No. 186

FROM

THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF STATISTICS,

TO

The Secretary to the Government of Madras.

SIR,

The appended statement shews the number of districts, number of executive sub-divisions, area in square miles, population, and land revenue (in Rs.) of 1895-96 as stated in the tables furnished by you for Section I, table 2, of the 3rd issue (1895-96) of the Financial and Commercial Statistics, (your letter No 2280A dated 11th June 1896) and also as given in table C (Civil divisions of British territory) of the Statistical returns in the General Administration Report for 1895-96.

2. There are certain differences between the two sets of figures and I have the honour

honour to request that you will be so good as to let me know which set is to be taken as correct. The statistics which are annually compiled from those given in the Provincial Administration Reports are now under compilation in this office in view to their publication by the end of March, and I should therefore be indebted for an answer to this enquiry as soon as possible.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. O. Carr
 Director-General of Statistics.
