The peti. states as follows:-

At the Revenue settlement of Fasli 1302 certain fields in the petrs village were assessed at Rs 6 per acre without any cause this rate was increased by Re 1 an acre. The petr & others thereupon protested to the Dy Commr against this but in vain. The Board on appeal issued B.P. no 6061 dt 11.11.96. restoring the assessment to the original rate of Rs 6 per acre which ~~has been~~ is being collected from Fasli 1305. In July 1896 the petrs son Soundara Raja Aiyangar applied to the Board praying that retrospective effect may be given to the above B.P. & that the excess assessment of Rs 30 collected from the petr. during the two Fasles prior to the issue of the B.P. may be refunded. In reply to this the enclosed B.P. was issued. The petr submits that this is unjust because the settlement dept. gives retrospective effect to orders increasing assessment on land & collects from ryots the excess assessment. He therefore prays that the money in question may be refunded.
