For the Honorable Chief Secretary to Government of Madras
 PETITION
 REVENUE DEPT.

*The humble petition of Baader & others
 of the village of Madhavapuram, Villore District
 Most respectfully sheweth Sir,*

*With due humility and profound submission, the following facts are brought in to your gracious honour for benign consideration, and of course the petitioners entreaty.
 We gave a petition to the Dabaidar of Madhavapuram Taluk for a copy of a Form in the month of April 1897.*

The Dabaidar sent us to the catchery stating that he will open and to money for the fee. He had added those papers by some cause. We do not know the reasons.

2) As we being paraihs and being poor and that M. Lak-shminaras being rich and a potter, this Dabaidar deceived us without giving the record we require.

As that Lakshminaras being a Brahman and we being paraihs; & (he) the Dabaidar hears his requests neglecting our requests and petitions.

3) We from our ancestors having the dead bodies of my caste from 4 or 5 decades and built tombs over it.
