Resolution.

The Board begs to resubmit the Explanatory Memorandum received from the Director-General of Statistics corrected, and ^{+ alterations shown} brought up to the end of 1895-96 ^{on the blank pages} with reference to the Memorandum ^{of the printed memo.} sent with Board's Proceedings No 174 ~~of this date~~ dated 1st March 1897.

2. The delay is due to late receipt of information called for by the Board from some collectors regarding the statistics for 1895-96.

3. Information is still due from the collectors of Bellary and Tanjore, but the Board has thought it unnecessary to wait further for it.

3. The list of Vernaculars too forwarded by the Director-does not require alteration it may, however, be desired to give explanations of the terms 'Minor Inams' and 'whole inam villages'. The Board has made an addition to the list defining those terms. In this connection, the Board would point out that the name by which entire villages held on favourable tenure, are called in this Presidency is 'whole inam villages' and not 'Wholly inam villages', as entered in the Director-General's printed Memorandum. (True & track!)
