ORDER :- No.1720 dated 2nd November 1896

Certain Treasury Deputy Collectors will probably be found to be unfit to be appointed Magistrates of the first class owing to their having omitted to pass the necessary tests or for other reasons. The Government is therefore unwilling to adopt the Board's proposal in paragraph 2 of its Proceedings and declare all Treasury Deputy Collectors to be ex-officio first class magistrates. When however there is no objection on the grounds of fitness or test qualifications, Treasury Deputy Collectors will be made first class magistrates on application by District Magistrates and when in any District there is such objection, the rule in G.O.,No.627 Public, dated 15th June 1896 will be suspended temporarily on sufficient cause being shown. All Collectors should be informed accordingly.

Copy of Note by the Honourable Mr. Bliss,C.I.E.,dated 11th February 1897:-

I think the Revenue Department should be moved to see that these Treasury Deputy Collectors go through such a training as to have magisterial experience.

Read again G.O.,No.1279 Judicial,dated 12th August 1896

Read the following paper:—

From the District Magistrate of Madura,No.5532,dated 1st February 1897:-

With reference to para 1 of Government Order No.1730 Judicial,dated 20th November 1896,I have the honour to recommend that the rule laid down in Government Order No.627 Public,dated 15th June 1896 may be temporarily suspended in this District,unless Government is pleased to reconsider the order contained in Government Order No.1279 Judicial,dated 12th August 1896 declining to invest my Treasury Deputy Collector with First Class magisterial powers on the ground that he has no magisterial experience. He possesses all the test qualifications.

2. Both the General Duty Deputy Collectors having their head-quarters in Madura are in charge of divisions,and have to be constantly on tour. The rule causes great inconvenience therefore,and later on at Jamabundy time it will be practically impossible to comply with it.
