Endorsement of Government No. 856 mis dated 13th February 1897, on petition from P. V. Subbiah F. T. S. Coimbatore, dated 6th February 1897.

Resolution

With reference to the Endorsement read above, the Board begs to submit the following remarks:—

In the year 1893, the petitioner applied for a loan of Rs 1500 under the Land Improvement Loans Act for the purchase of a windmill and a pump for raising water from a well for Agricultural purposes. He offered as Security Certain lands and a house; but in in the enquiry conducted by the Divisional officer and the Collector, the value of the lands in his sole enjoyment, excluding those in the common enjoyment of himself and his minor sons, was estimated at only Rs 900. He was accordingly granted in August 1894 a loan of only Rs 720 under Rule 10 of the ordinary Rules of the Land Improvement Loans Act. Time up to 7th August 1895, was allowed for the completion of the work; but the work not having been completed, extension of time was granted by the Collector on two occasions. The petitioner failed to complete the work even at the end of this period, but applied to the Collector for a supplemental loan of Rs 280 to enable him to erect a tower for the windmill, and for the postponement up to 7th August 1898, of the collection of the first instalment of repayment, which fell due on the 7th August 1895 and for the extension of the period of repayment from 15 to 20 years.

The Collector having refused to grant these prayers, the petitioner appealed to the Board, which after obtaining a report from the Collector Collector passed the order appealed against. The Board agreed with the Collector that the additional security offered by the petitioner was not good, as the lands so offered were not in his sole enjoyment and the machines could not be accepted as good security, as they might get out of order at any time and would not fetch their value when sold for arrears of instalments of loan; and as regards his requests for the postponement of collection of instalment and for the extension of the period for the repayment of loans, the Board observed that they were properly refused, as there were no special reasons for granting them. The grant of a loan for the purpose for which the petitioner has taken it was originally sanctioned by the Board, mainly on the ground that though the enterprise was a bold one, it deserved encouragement, but the petitioner had not completed the work, notwithstanding that extension of time was granted on two occasions.
