REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

G. No. 1299 of 97.

From
The Board of Revenue, Land Revenue.

Dated 8-2-189 7.

FOR ORDERS.

In its Proceedings under G. O. 610 11.11.96 the Board of Revenue submitted proposals for the disafforestation of a portion on the east side of the Bolampatty II reserved forest. The sanction of the Government of India was applied for and the notification of disafforestation was ordered to be published in G. O. 8 7.1.97.

2 In forwarding to the Board the proposal above referred to, it would appear that the Collector also sent a notification describing the eastern boundary of the reserved forest as that boundary would have stood after disafforestation of the portion mentioned in the preceding paragraph. The notification was however returned to the Collector for revision and resubmission (please see para 4 of B.P. under G.O. 610 11.11.96). In the Current read alone, the Board now submits the notification as revised by the Collector.

G.O. Rev No. 1318 dy 9th March 1897.

The Board of Revenue is requested to explain fully the circumstances which rendered necessary the issue of an amended boundary notification.

By order etc.

To the Board of Revenue (L. R.)

Draft

Kindly explain why it is considered necessary to publish a notification describing the eastern boundary of the reserved forest as it stands after disafforestation of a portion. Such a course is not usually followed and is unnecessary if the boundaries of the portion given up are described with sufficient precision in the notification ordered to be published in G.O. No. 8, 7.1.97. Orders are solicited as to whether the Board may be asked about this.

Yes, I don't know why it is considered necessary.
3/3/97

4. The map forwarded shows only the portion of the eastern boundary affected by the disafforestation, so that the remaining portion of the notification (which relates to the whole of the eastern boundary) is not capable of verification. It may also be remarked that the Current instead of quoting G.O. No. 610, 11.11.96 refers to B.P. 1404 misc. & 20.10.96 (Contained in the G.O.) which contravenes rule 10 of the Rules laid down in G.O. (Public) No. 2596, 13.12.86. × flagged A.

The Board's Proceedings is not sufficiently explicit & the necessity for the notification is not apparent.
