Abstract translation of the petition

SUBJECT.

Since 1875, the petitioner was holding the post of Classifier in the Settlement Department, Taluk, South Arcot District. During the settlement of the Srivikantam Taluk in the Tirunelveli District, the petitioner, being his enemy, concocted a case of bribery against him. Transfers a petition dated 15th June 1897 from Appasami Aiyar of V. Marudur village, Villupuram to the Settlement Department, Taluk, South Arcot District, praying that he may be appointed as one of the several posts enumerated by him.

By order

Ag Private Secretary.

and had him sentenced by the District Magistrate to six months imprisonment. The petitioner ~~appealed~~ appealed against the punishment but without success. Since his release from prison, he has been maintaining a large family for the last twenty years and now owing to the present famine, he finds it very difficult to get the necessaries of life. The petitioner understands that orders have been issued directing that persons sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life should be released after the lapse of twenty years. Even if the petitioner is held guilty, he has already suffered enough - having been deprived of his pensionable appointments and put into jail.

To enable the petitioner to participate in the rejoicings in Commemoration of the Queen's Jubilee, he requests that he may be pardoned and that he may be permitted to earn his livelihood by taking up any temporary non-pensionable appointment such as that of a village karnam or munsiff or
