Mr. R. S. Somasundaram sasti thanking the Court for re-appointing him Manager of Pittapuram & stating that he leaves for Pittapuram via

Madras

Madras on Saturday the 13th instant.

Resolution

Submitted to Government for sanction.

2. As Government is aware, the duties of the Manager of the Pittapuram Estate entail unusual responsibility and require special capacity; and in view of the somewhat delicate position occupied by the representatives of the minor during the pendency of the Privy Council Appeal, it becomes necessary to employ an officer possessing much tact and ability. The Court accordingly recommends that the case be treated as falling <sup>under</sup> Rule iv (2) of Article 806 of the Civil Service Regulations, as presently amended, and that the pay of the post be fixed, as before, at Rs 750/- per annum, ex pensionary contribution, as recommended by the Collector.

The other conditions of the Civil Service Regulations, are satisfied.

3. Mr. R. Rao Bahadur C. Somasundaram Shastri is already on his way to Pittapur to take up the appointment of Manager. The Collector points out that in these circumstances there will be no necessity for the provisional appointment of Mr. H. A. Krishnamoorthy, who was recommended for the post of provisional manager in Court's Proceedings. 181 Misc of the 3rd instant.

No. 9. AE

Fort Saint George
Accountant Genl. office 26th February 1897.

Submitted with the remark that there is no Account objection to the appointment in question. Mr. R. V.
Somasundaram Shastri avl. having drawn pay at Rs 500 under Government is not entitled, to draw, as manager of the Pithapuram Estate a higher sanctioned salary than Rs 625 per Mensem under clause 1 of Article 80b IV of the Civil Service Regulations; But should Government be satisfied that the duties of the Manager entail unusual responsibility and require special capacity, as represented by the Court, it can, under clause 2 of that Article grant him a sanctioned salary of Rs 750 per Mensem.
