FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From R. A. GAMBLE, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, the 16th February 1897, No. 749-P.

In reply to your letter, No. 744, dated 5th November 1896, I am directed to convey sanction to the Board of Revenue, Madras, being empowered to grant, under Article 999 of the Civil Service Regulations, pensions to Revenue and Forest subordinates, whether in superior or inferior service, drawing Rs. 20 a month and less, in cases in which such claims are certified by the Accountant-General to be admissible under the strict letter of the Regulations.

2. I am also to convey sanction to the delegation to the Board of Revenue and the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, of the power conferred by Article 464 of the Civil Service Regulations of commuting retrospectively periods of absence without leave into leave without allowances. It is understood that the power of commuting leave will, as in the case of the grant of pensions, be exercised by the Board of Revenue and the Inspector-General of Police only as regards subordinates drawing Rs. 20 a month and less.

Ordered that copy, with a copy of the letter to which this is a reply, be forwarded to the Home and Revenue and Agricultural Departments for information.

Ordered also that copy be forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, for information.

ORDER—No. 189, Financial, dated 26th February 1897.

Under the sanction conveyed in the foregoing letter, the powers referred to in the first and second paragraphs will be delegated to the Board of Revenue, and that specified in paragraph 2 will be delegated to the Inspector-General of Police.
