Dated 7.7.97

CHIEF SECRETARY
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

REV. DEPT

Right Honble Sir,

Most humbly and respectfully begs to state that your appellant was appointed Inspector in the Madras Salt Department only on account of Mr. J. C. Harris Macmillan who was always against him. Although he could not do any harm to him yet he caused him to undergo several troubles from time to time by the Inspectors and sometimes Asstt. Commrs. except Asstt. Commr. A. J. Simpson Esqr. bearing the old grudge in his although your Lordships poor appellant used to be very obedient to him through fear. To convince your Lordship the poor appellant earnestly declares before your Lordships wholly throne and Christian oath that the above is plain truth because there was no other reason to resign his permanent post in the Salt department after passing in about 11 years service your Lordship being his and his poor little children all in all for their livelihood he most humbly prays that your Lordship will most graciously pass an order to allow him to join his post in the Salt department forgiving him if he has found guilty in any way in his foolish doings

by

by your Lordships judgement as he has been suffering too much both his poor little Children and family in these hard days being out of imployment since last two months. Your Lordships poor Appellant is a very poor orphan Christian consisting of 6 souls who solely depend upon him for their livelihood having no other means except your charity. He therefore most humbly and respectfully prays for the above favour prostrating at your Lordships noble feet with his poor Children and family.

Your Lordships humble Appellant
Most humbly and respectfully to remain, Honored Sir,
Your most-humble & ob.t Appellant
John Chowdhry
Late Sub. Inspector of Salt
Revenue Department.
