GP. 5 Mar 97 The estate is not smaller than many I have known the Court take charge of. It seems unlikely that the minor's father will make away with the estate.

Rd letter from J. Andrew, Esquire, Acting Collector of Tanjore, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, Ref on Cir No. 190/Ver dated 18th February 1897.

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Govt under Section 3 of Regulation V of 1804.

2. The Board is unable to support the Collector's recommendation to the effect that the estate should be entrusted to the care of the Court of Wards. In the Board's opinion it would be inadvisable to saddle the Revenue Authorities with the charge of this small estate, seeing that there are male relatives whom the deceased himself specified as fit persons to act as guardians and trustees to his adopted son in the event of the Court of Wards refusing to take charge of the estate.
