The undersigned has the honour to request that the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, will be so good as to state the object of communicating to the Public Department the G. O's noted in the margin regarding fortnightly narratives of famine work. As far as can be seen there is nothing in these orders calling for action in this department. The undersigned would be obliged if, in communicating such G.O's hereafter to the departments of the Chief Secretariat, the necessity for the communication is pointed out by indicating, either in the body of the order itself or in the despatch entry thereof, whether the order is sent for information generally or with reference to any particular paragraph or for action with reference to any particular portion of the correspondence.

Chief Secretary.
