The petitioner states that the post of Kattabadi was held successively by his three eldest uncles and his father, the last of whom having become old, the post was registered in the petition name some 6 or 7 years ago; that he was thrown out of his employ in the recent revision of village establishment which took place on the 5th July 1897; that the post of Kattabadi ^{has been taken during} ~~was taken during~~ his family from the time of his eldest uncle; that persons who were recently appointed (apparently without any such hereditary right) have been retained in the service. May that the records of his case may be sent for and that he may be restored to his appointment.
