Acting Collector.

No 865
Acc.

Nellore Collector's office,
Dated 6th March 1897.

From

W. S. Meyer Esquire,
Ag. Collector of Nellore.

To

The Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department,
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that on the 20th December 1880 his Grace the late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos sent Rs 150 "in aid of the blind and imbeciles, famine orphans" in Nellore. Desirous of making the best use of the donation, the Honourable Mr Groom, then Collector, decided to utilize the money for the benefit of the famine orphans maintained in the Nellore Langarkhana at the cost of the State, by making small grants to induced their relatives to take charge of them; but the proposition failed as no relatives appeared. A sum of Rs 30-7-0 was however spent out of the donation in October 1882 for the purchase of cloths and Cumbalies to cover the orphans in cold weather.

2. In August 1882, Mr. J. Lee Warner, then acting Collector, applied to Government for orders as to the period up to which the orphans, then thirteen in number, were to be supported at the expense of the state, and the Government in its order No 202 Rev: dated 17th January 1883 authorized the Collector to hand them over as opportunity might offer, to any local body or persons of respectability willing to undertake their future care and deserving of the trust. In the event of his failing to dispose of them all satisfactorily within three months, the Collector was to submit a list of those remaining on hand in view to their being transferred to an orphanage at Madras. Agreeably to these orders all the orphans were disposed of by the 14th February 1883 with the exception of one blind girl named Nagi, who was sent to the Municipal Langarkhana at Nellore and is still being maintained there.

3. The matter of the employment of the Duke's donation seems to have been subsequently lost sight of, the money having been transferred in 1886 to the post office Savings Bank and I enclose a memo showing that including the interest up to 31st March 1896 the sum now at credit amounts to Rs 201-15-2. I request the orders of Government as to what should be done with this money. The intention of the donor was that the blind and imbeciles of the then famine orphans should be aided; but as above stated the only one of those that remains here is already provided for. I beg to propose that the Money be given to the Famine Fund now being raised, so that it may be applied in a manner similar to that which the Donor intended.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient Servant,

Acting Collector.
