To

THE Chief Secretary to Government,

Ootacamund.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

I have the honor to draw your attention to my letter dated 30th June 1897, No. 2262, regarding the grant of famine batta to the Police in Bellary and to request very early orders thereon. The men are suffering very much and every day that batta is not given makes a great difference to them.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

M. Hammick
