The petn. states as follows:-

Some time ago poramboke Nos. 522, 514 and 518 in the petrs. village which were used as common grazing grounds of the village were assigned to Avanasi Koundan by the Dy. Tahsildar of Perundurai. The petrs. protested against this to the Sub. Coll. on 8.9.95 and 7.12.95. As ordered by that officer the petr. presented himself at Erode on the 9th May '96 but not finding him there presented another petition to the Sub-Coll. through a vakil praying that another day might be fixed for the enquiry of the case. But that officer took no notice of this petition and two others subsequently presented & declined to interfere in the matter. The Coll. on appeal confirmed the order of the Sub-Coll. The local authorities are indifferent about the case on the strength of the rule that more than one appeal is not admissible in Darkhast cases. As the assignment of the land in question is unjust and opposed to Board's standing Order No. 30, the petr. prays that the assignment in question may be cancelled. Mr. Arundel has once before refused to assign a village common grazing ground to the petr. (vide. Enclos. No. 2)
