Dated Chatrapur 27th July 1897.

From

The Acting Collector of Ganjam District.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department,
Madras.

Sir,

The Agent to the Rajah of Parlakemedi has applied to me for a public copy of the Government Order giving the rajah the right to grant Sanad, and Sadi, to the Doras in his Estate as in the case of Bissoyes but has not given the number and date of the Government Order wanted.

2. Government order no. 426 Revenue, dated 29th April 1892 stating that the Zemindar of Parlakemidi has no power of appointment or dismissal of doras but may invest them on appointment as in the case of Bissoyes is the only one to be found in this Office records on the subject, and this appears to be the Government Order, a copy of which is wanted by the Agent.

3. I have therefore the honor to request orders as to whether there is any objection to granting a public copy of this Government Order.

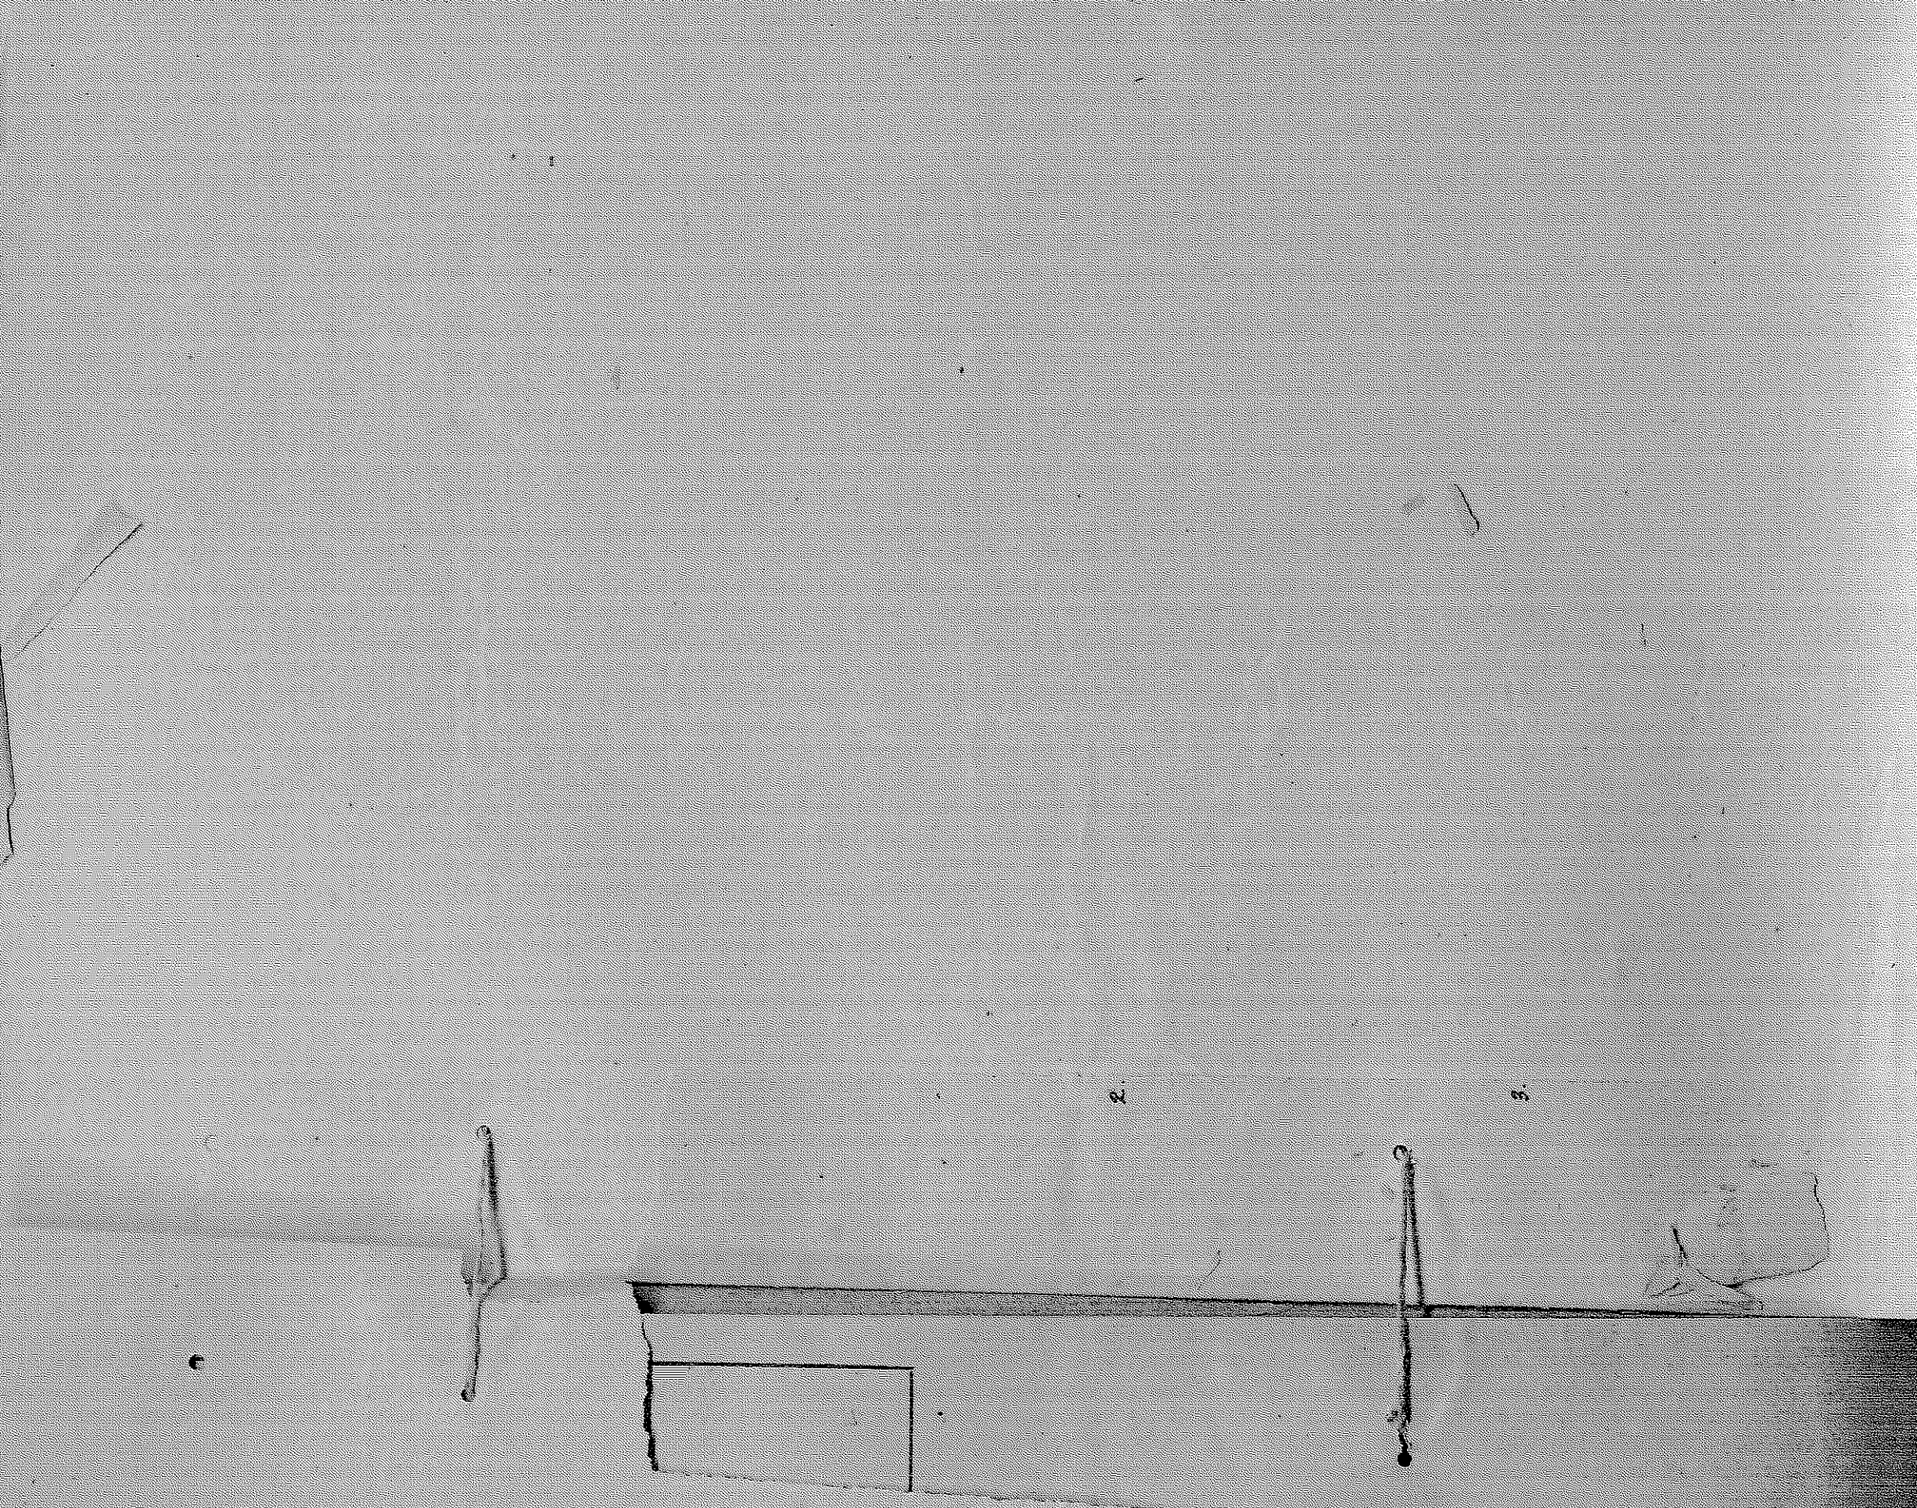

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

for Cg. Collector.
