To the applicant. with 3 C.S. papers } dis. 20-8-97

Note. The papers put up show that the repairs connected with the Seetharamasagaram tank was a subject of dispute between the Mokhasadar of Roolivila and the ryots of Tegalanancha. In the papers connected with the G.O. copy of which is applied for, there are statements which neither the Mokhasadar nor the ryots of Tegalanancha should come to know – please see paras 5 and 7 of Mr Foster's letter in G.O 3206 dt 6th November 1877.

2 G.O 344 dt 4-3-78 (order only)

SUBJECT.

Applying for Copy of a G.O.

Form A

by itself does not contain anything Copy of which it may be objectionable to grant. But if a copy is granted, the petitioner will naturally be led to apply for Copies of the Connected papers.

3/ Before the application is rejected, the applicant, it may, it is submitted, be directed to state the purpose for which he wants a Copy.

But the purpose is stated in the application & is as follows

"To prefer an appeal & to put in a revised petition".

It seems quite clear that what the applicant wants is Mr Forbes's letter which forms the subject of his view of the case, a view unfavorable to Govt. The purpose can only be to bring forth litigation. Instructions that copies should be refused.
