The peti. states as follows:-

Some time ago the peti. who is a helpless widow, filed Suit no. 896 of 1896 in forma pauperis in the Mh. Municip's Court at Chivambaram for maintenance against her late husband's undivided brother. At an enquiry held by the Revenue & Civil authorities it was proved that the peti. was a pauper. The above suit was compromised the defendant having agreed to place the peti. (plaintiff) in possession of certain lands to be enjoyed by her during her lifetime. The Court fees payable to Govt on account of stamps in connection with the above suit amounted to Rs 48 which the Court ordered to be ~~shared~~ ^{shared} ~~divided~~ equally ~~between~~ ^{by} the parties. The defendant has paid his share Rs 24. The peti. could not pay her portion as she has no other property than the lands given to her for her lifetime the annual income from which after paying the assessment is only 10 kalams of paddy which is hardly sufficient for her maintenance. As the Revenue authorities are troubling her for the stamp duties she prays that she may be exempted from payment of the dues and that the Collr. may be ordered to see that the demand is not made.
