Note:- In para 4 of its order No 776 dated 28th Nov 1895, Govt suggested that the preparation of the instructions might be entrusted to an officer familiar with the routine of the Sea Customs Dept who might, if necessary be allowed to visit a few ports with which he was not acquainted.

c. 18/2/97 Rc. 20/2/97

SUBJECT

Suggesting to Government that Mr. F. G. Marshall, Assistant Commissioner of Salt Abkari and Customs department, Tinnevelly Sub division, be placed on special duty for Six months for the preparation of a draft of instructions for the guidance of Salt & Abkari officers in regard to Customs matters.

The best thing, we should do, would be to send Mr. Paizunsky round to make the desired enquiries. But Mr. Gilbert points out that within a few weeks there must be a next Coll. of Sea Customs, so that it will not be necessary to draw Mr. Paizunsky – Madras & this, it appears that in more than one locality there is suspicion of smuggling, chiefly of rice & Ceylon. Mr. Marshall's previous experience as a Salt should enable him to deal with this. His deputation may be sanctioned on the usual terms

REVENUE BOARD OFFICE. MADRAS.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue.)

Dated 3rd February, 1897.

Mis No. 447.

Read again Board's Proceedings Press No. 388 S.R. dated 27th January 1896.

Resolution.

With reference to para 4 of Government order No. 776 Revenue, dated 28th November 1895, containing certain instructions regarding the transfer of the Superior of Customs work to the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department, the Board begs to report that it has had a draft of instructions for the use of Salt and Abkari officers prepared in the Sea Customs Office, Madras. It, however, does not appear to meet the requirements of the Department satisfactorily as the arrangement is full faulty and the matter too technical for the use of officers whose customs duties will only form a portion of their work and will consist chiefly of inspection and prevention. The Commissioner has visited several of the Chief Customs ports of the presidency during the past few months and from what he has observed he considers it essential to the compilation of a satisfactory set of instructions that the officer entrusted with it should be personally acquainted with the working of mofussil ports and the faults likely to be found in them. Practices vary greatly at the different ports and the best way of securing uniformity will be to entrust the preparation of the instructions to an officer who has made detailed local enquiries.

It, therefore, begs to suggest that Mr F. G Marshall, Assistant Commissioner, Tinnevelly Sub Division, be placed on Special duty for Six months for the purpose. He has had no previous acquaintance with Customs work but he is one of the most promising officers of his class and the Board is confident that he will have thoroughly mastered the subject within that time and have prepared a set of instructions under its supervision more adapted to the purpose for which they are intended than would be likely to be compiled by an officer who treated Customs questions from the point of view of a member of the staff of the Chief Customs port. The only officer conversant with Sea Customs matters competent to do the work is Mr Packzensky, Deputy Collector of Sea Customs, Madras.
It would, however, not be so easy to

to spare his services, in addition to which a younger man will be better suited for the outdoor work and travelling involved in a tour of the Chief Customs ports. Mr. Marshall who has been a sailor, will also be better able to make suggestions regarding preventive measures afloat and equipment than a landsman.

H. E. The Governor

You may be ready to accept the recommendation that Mr. Marshall be deputed to this work. A minute of approval or non-concurrence of a kindred nature should be submitted to me, before this G.O. is issued.

A.G# 21.3.97

I concur. Let approval be recorded.

G.O. No. 1572 Dmo, dy 23rd March '97.

In the circumstances stated, the proper officer to send round to make the desired enquiries would doubtless be Mr. Paczensky. But, as pointed out by the Comr, it will not be easy to spare his services. ~~A position of two weeks there must~~ be a new Collector of Customs, Madras. In addition to this, ~~it is understood that~~ in more than one locality there is suspicion of smuggling, chiefly of rice to Ceylon, with which Mr Marshall's previous experience as a sailor should enable him to take effective steps to deal with it. His deputation for a period of six months will accordingly be sanctioned under Art. 95(b) of the Civil Service Regulations. While so employed, he will draw the maximum deputation allowance admissible under Art 98 of the C.S. Regns
