The Governor General of India
Bengal.

My Lord, Justice has been very kindly given me, but snatched away subsequently!

I had been a Forest Guard in Kothali Sarnasik Lake of the Visagapatam District, in the Madras Presidency. Having had to enforce the rigid rules of the Madras Forest Act on the very life-long people of these parts, I had to encounter many difficulties.
The people all gathered together and continued to get me into trouble because I would not work to suit their convenience. They first had brought a bribery case against me and I was acquitted. (Judgment enclosed for perusal) and when they saw that their contrivance would be crushed in a Court of Justice they sent up a petition to my Departmental Superiors, saying that a man of Kothali, Lalan Saigari, had cut wood in a Government Forest without a permit with the Forest Guards' connivance. When the Forest Ranger came and enquired the man admitted that he cut the wood in the Government Jungle but that he paid Rs 2/- to the Forest Guard. The Forest Ranger charged him before the magistrate and the man admitted he was guilty, (not by straightforwardness) but a wish to get me into trouble and he was fined Rs 20/-. (Judgment enclosed for perusal)
