TREASURY ACCOUNT DEPARTMENT.

CIRCULAR No. VII.

Fort St. George,
Accountant-General's Office,
24th February 1897.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL
TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
To ALL COLLECTORS AND TREASURY OFFICERS
AND ALL HEADS OF OFFICES
IN THE CIVIL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

Government having in its order No. 309—310, Financial, dated 2nd May 1896, directed that all contingent expenditure should be recorded in detail in the accounts in future and that no portion of it should be classified in a lump as "1-b. Contingencies admissible without detailed audit," I have the honour to request that, from 1st April 1897, all such expenditure may be shown in bills as well as in the contingent registers under one or other of the heads mentioned in the appendices to the order.

2. Necessary alterations will be made in the forms of bills and contingent registers supplied by this office.

3. If in any case the stock of forms now on hand is large, it may be utilized, but care should be taken not to show any amount in a lump sum under "1-b. Contingencies admissible without detailed audit," but to describe all the charges in detail.

4. Treasury officers are also informed that revised forms of Treasury Accounts containing all the detailed heads of contingent charges will shortly be supplied, and that those forms only should be used from 1st April 1897.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

F. C. HARRISON,
Offg. Accountant-General.
