I cannot at this time at all. The examination must be held with the least possible delay. His responsibility is the reason.
M. 27/8/91

P. C. is warned to be more careful in future.
M. 28/8/91

I beg to submit that the reader read the word as "yard" and I passed it, for which I beg leave to be excused.
M. 26-8-91

As the word "Ground" is not clear in the original and as the word "yard" has occurred several times in the Board's Resolution, I should have taken the word for "yard" in typewriting the paper. As I had to read the very thing I had myself typewritten, I might have ~~com~~ repeated the very mistake that that I had committed when typewriting. I humbly beg to be excused for the mistake this time.

The Asst. Secretary to Govt., Revenue Department,
Orissacund.

Sir, I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the G. O. No 2227, dated the 28th June 1897, and to point out that, in para 3 of the Resolution of the Board of Revenue, embodied therein, it is stated that rent at Rs 57 per yard per month will be levied in future for the storage of iron. The word "yard", the Chamber presumes, is a misprint for "ground"
viz. "Rs 57 per ground"

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Yours most obed^t servant
