To

The Secretary

To The Govt of

Travancore

Sir,

I have lately come to know that Relief works are to be opened in Travancore; I therefore beg leave to submit my application for the post of an Assistant-Officer in the aforesaid Relief-works.

During last Opium Weighments I was appointed an extra Assistant Deputy Opium Agent & gave very satisfaction in my work.

I am a volunteer of four years standing of the A Company of Agra Vol: Rifles and have obtained the 'M.A' degree of the Allahabad University from St Johns College, Agra.

I can ride well and am

I forward a copy of my Principal's testimonial as regard character, and abilities — physical and mental.

I hope my application will be favorably considered, and in case I am appointed I will give thorough satisfaction by performing my duties fully and diligently.

I have the honor to remain,
Sir,
Your Humble Servant
