of Land Revenue,Madras.

Sir,

In reply to Board's Reference dated 24th September 1896 on Government No. 1664 of the same year concerning the payment by the Military Department of Rs.150 annually to the Todas for land taken up for the Cantonment, I request that a prolonged scrutiny of records & maps has failed to show what were the old Military buildings and sites situated within the limits of the Old Cantonment of Ootacamund.

2. It may , however,be said generally that since the abolition of the Cantonment all rents and assessments for occupied lands have been credited not to the Military but to the Civil Department.

3. There is therefore no objection to the proposal of the Military Department to debit the annual compensation of Rs.150 paid to the Todas under Proceedings of the Madras Government No.1184/Rev.,dated 11-12-1849 to Civil expenditure instead of to Military as at present.

I have the honor to be

Sir,
