The peti. & repeats the history of the case which he has related in his previous petitions and submits the following additional points for the consideration of Govt.

Mr. Horifall who as Sub-collection rejected Parasurama Rowndan's petition denying that he was the writer of the razinama which bore his mark, was the judge who tried the pet's case and maintained that the same razinama was forged. The pet. belongs to a family which has ever been known to his grand father and father were trustworthy Karmams. It is possible therefore for the pet. to be dishonest. The only charge against the pet. has its source in a report on whom there is no reason to place more reliance than on the pet. In 1893 the pet. was acquitted of a charge of forgery brought against him as Karmam of Sinniyam pettai an office to which he was in charge of subsequent to his dismissal. If Parasurama Rowndan has presented a Sarkhash with his signature in the day days of the petis father and if he had presented another dark hash to the peti with his mark, there might be grounds for suspicion against the peti. The case however is not with Parasurama owns a mark he presented a dark hash to the peti's father with his mark and disputes the mark presented to the peti which is also bore his mark. The peti and the Mongar affixed their signatures to the razinama under dispute.

 The peti is dismissed while the Mongar is retained. There is no justice in this.
 In consideration of the above the peti prays that if it is not possible to forward his appeal to the Govt of India this Govt may enquire into the matter and replace him to office.
