SUBJECT.

Submitting to Government, through the Accountant General, letter from the Superintendent Civil Veterinary department requesting general sanction of Government for journey to Bangalore on public duty and stating that if the same can be given, it will obviate the necessity of frequent reference to Government.

Returned to the Board of Revenue (R & O) with Govt. Order dy 5.3.97

This appears to be the first case that has come up to foot. A general sanction it is therefore submitted is not likely to lessen correspondence.

READ the following letter from the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department dated 29" January 1897 No: 101 :-

I have the honor to state that the accompanying travelling allowance bill for my journey to Bangalore on 5" and 6" January 1897 for Rs 69-0-0 has been objected to by the Accountant General for want of sanction of the Madras Government, as per Audit slip No: A.B.II./54 dated 27" January 1897 herein enclosed for perusal and return.

2. I had to go to Bangalore on this occassion to inspect Government stallions landed there as stated in the column allotted for "Purpose of Journey" of the bill under objection I again visited the place on the 25" instant to inspect one of those that was sick and I may further have to visit the place on public duty frequently. I therefore request that you will kindly obtain the necessary general sanction of Government.

Resolution

Submitted to Government.

2. If a general sanction such as is asked for by the Superintendent Civil Veterinary Department can be given, it will obviate the necessity of frequent reference to Governme ment.
