Copy of letter No. B45-44 dated 35,764
Madras the 1st March 1897 from the Port Master General to the Superinten-ding Engineer 5th Circle Madras.

I have the honour to inform you that the land belonging to the Kumbakonam Sub Post-Office was encroached upon by a neighbour about the 21st April 1896, and the Executive Engineer Tanjore was requested through the Superintendent of Post-Offices, Cuddalore Division in this Office No 19/21 dated 23rd September 1896, to state if it was not within his province to take the initiative in the prosecution of the party concerned.

2. He intimated in his N. 4384 dated 22^d October 1896 to the Divisional Superintendent of the Post Office that he has referred the question to you for instructions. He has since informed, informed me in his No 768 dated 18th February 1897 that he has not received any instructions from you as yet.

3. I have the honour to request there-fore, that you will, with reference to para 66, Chapter III, Vol. I. of the P.W.
D. Code, be so good as to arrange for early action being taken for the removal of the encroachment alluded to above, Should you be unable to take action in this direction, I shall be glad to have early intimation so that if necessary the remedies prescribed by law may be enforced before the period of limitation expires.
