GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

To

The Government of Madras

Most Honoured & Respected /.

I Meenakshi ayyr Kurnam of Irugur Kilambady Cassum village Erode Taluq, Coimbatore District humbly beg to bring the following few lines to your honour's kind consideration hoping to meet with success.

I beg to state that I have been appointed as Kurnam in the year 1846 & I am discharging my duties from that time. For that I am allowed by the Government to enjoy some Inam lands & in the settlement done in the year 1882 the Inam title deed for the above lands was made to my name & I am enjoying them solely paying the quit rent for the above lands.

(2) one Muthusamy ayyr of Thanoor village Thorapadi firka Musiri Taluq Trichinopoly District filed suit against me in the Sub court Coimbatore vide original suit No 1 of 1894 & in Madras High court vide appeal No 31 of 1896 to take possession of the above Inam lands. In these two courts the above suit was favoured on my side & the case was dismissed with costs.

(3) I hear now that the above Muthusamy ayyr has given petition to Madras

Government to transfer the Inam title deeds to their names.

(4) As I want to give petition to show the rights I have for the above Inam lands I most humbly request to order to give a true copy for the petition given by the above Inamdars ups

(5) I am ready to pay the costs which will take for the above true copy

(6) As I am getting a very low pay & I being a very poor man, I most humbly request to order to give a true copy for the above petition.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient & humble
Servant
