The Tanjore map is not to be found either in the map-shelves. It appears that the maps in the Madras office were sent to the Survey Office in March last and that a list was made out of them.

The map is not in the list of maps sent to the Survey office

Note

The Librarian's letter submitted

I examined all the almirahs and boxes of records without any success. I also examined all the maps in the Library repository but Tanjore Irrigation map was not among them. I examined the entries in the circulation book to see if the map ever went out and returned by them. There is no entry regarding the map. The peons having been dealt with by the Head Assistant, I searched for the map in my self and amongst Tanjore's table and drawer but nothing. I also examined the list of maps sent to the Survey office.

In the above cuttg the Board asks for the return of the ~~map~~ Irrigation map of the Tanjore Distt submitted with its Pro: No 719 d. 1-11-92.

2. The map is reported to be not forthcoming in the Govt. office - after a thorough search.

3. There is no special entry either on the cuttg or in the Received Register to show that the map was received in the Govt. office. But as it is expressly referred to in para 29 of the B.P. it must have been received; else it wd have been called for. It is probably one of the 35 enclosures which appear from an entry in the Received Register to have been submitted to Govt. with the B.P. Narayana Menon (who apparently represented the cuttg at the inspn circumstances will perhaps be able to give some definite information on the point. Does he remember to have seen the maps? Does Narasimha Aiyangar who has had to do with the papers at a later stage remember anything about the maps?

4. The B.P. quoted was disposed of by G.O. No 677 dt 31.7.93. Of this a copy in MS. was despatched on the 31st July 93 & another in print on the 23rd Aug. following. Though no enclosures are shown as having been returned to the Board on either date, only one of them is in the file. What has become of the remaining 34 enclosures? They would have been returned to the Board. But it is unfortunate that there is no entry to that effect at foot of the G.O. and the Despatch book (only) in which the return of the enclosures would have been noted is not forthcoming in the Madras office. It is available at only.

Can S. Krishnier give any information about the enclosures?

5. I have caused enquiries to be made in the Board's office through the First Assistant there, and I learn not only that the enclosures referred to are not forthcoming in that office, but that even the signed copy of the G.O. in print, about the despatch of which there is no doubt whatever, is also missing.

Note for the Registrar

14 SEP 97

With reference to the remarks in the accompanying note from the Registrar, I beg to say that the original of the current, with its enclosures, was as far as I can recollect, with me only for a day or two and that I submitted it direct to the Secy under orders from the under Secy. The previous papers were put up by me by a reference to a spare copy and the papers never passed thro' me subsequently. I regret I cannot recollect whether there was a map with the current or not when I received it.

KMM.
23 VIII 97

I beg to state that under instructions from the then Secretary (Mr Galton) I prepared some notes and statements. The current and its enclosures were not given to me at the time and I do not remember anything about the missing map. I know that a number of meetings were held at the Govt House and at the Secy took the papers with him on these occasions. Possibly the map might have dropped out there. I therefore beg to suggest that enquiry might be made at the Govt House also.

That

23/8/97

I beg to state that I do not remember anything about the map or other enclosures at this distance of time. The Despatch book of 1893 is not here to enable me to verify whether the encls were at a subsequent date returned to the Board of Rev.

Note for the H.C.

Will you please ask the Manager, Private Secy's office as suggested.

2 Aug 97

Please see reply received from the Manager, Private Secretary's office. It is just possible that the map & the other enclosures have been mislaid in the Board's office along with the signed copy of the G.O. in print about the despatch of which there is no doubt whatever.

Note for the under Secy

Please see the accompanying notes about the irrigation map of the Tanjore district referred to in C.R. 6382/97. Every possible search has been made for it; but it cannot be traced. This is much to be regretted.

The draft on the current may, I submit, issue.
