The peti. complains that the attached B.R. is opposed to law and justice. It was passed on the assumption - which is not supported by facts - that at the Arrangement there was a change in the numbe. of Karnams for the petis village. Before and at the Revision there was only one Karnam for the village and the petis case therefore should be decided under Regulation VII of 1831. The lower courts in enquiring into the matter found that there had been no change in the number of Karnams for the village in question, and decided the case under the above mentioned Regulation. The Board in issuing its unjust order has set aside the long standing hereditary right of the peti. The peti. therefore prays that the records of the lower courts may be sent for and perused, that the Board's decision may be reversed and that the declaratory decree granted to him by the lower courts may be confirmed.
