BOARD OF REVENUE (REV. SETT., L. RDS. AND AGRI.), 28TH DEC. 1896, No. 464.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(REVENUE SETTLEMENT, LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE).

READ—the following letter from K. C. MANAVEDAN RAJA, Esq., Acting Collector of Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture, dated 21st December 1896, R. C. No. 3799:—

In the third clause of section 120 of the Famine Code, it is stated that when "grain allowances are unduly above or below the actual cost of these articles, the amount of money necessary to purchase them at current rates may be given." Here "these articles" refer to the "other items," viz., pulse, salt, &c. The "grain allowance" referred to in the above clause seem to be the grain equivalent intended to cover the cost of the "other items." What seems to be intended by the clause is that when the money value of the grain equivalent is either unduly more or less than the actual cost of the other items, the actual cost only should be given. The "other items" are treated in this clause collectively, and the clause taken by itself does not seem to permit the payment of the money required for the purchase of any one of the articles included in the "other items" where such article sells so dear or cheap that its actual cost differs considerably from the money value of its grain equivalent, but what the grain equivalent is for each of these items is not given in the Code. It is to this individual dealing of these items that the next clause seems to refer. Unless it did so, the two clauses (3rd and 4th) would convey one and the same import. It is not, however, clear how the two clauses differ from one another and I have the honour to request the favour of instructions on the point.

RESOLUTION—dated 28th December 1896, No. 461.

The Collector will be informed that there is no contradiction between the two clauses referred to, and that in all cases it is the money value of the allowance to cover the cost of the "other items" collectively that should be considered. Clauses 2 and 3 of the section were originally drafted as a foot-note, but afterwards embodied in the section under the orders of the Government of India—vide Board's Proceedings, dated 22nd October 1896, No. 287.

2. In the Board's opinion clause 3 might be struck out without any disadvantage.
