Note The order referred to by the Bd is not traceable. Its remarks (portions marked in pencil) at pp. 4 & 5 of G.O. No. 132 1.3.97 imply that there is such an order, under the Cloud distillation system, distillation often takes place when no officer is present, the air reason being that all the receptacles & stills are locked. dist.

SUBJECT.

Informing the Deputy Com. -missioners, Central Division with remark, that the order that distillation should never be permitted except in the presence of an officer of the department is a general one and that it should be strictly enforced in each distillery.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue),

Dated 20th March, 1897.

Sl. No. 1093.

Read endorsement of the Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, No 710 dated 12th February 1897 submitting to the Board for favour of orders copy of letter from the Assistant Commissioner, Bellary requesting the Deputy Commissioner that he may be furnished with further orders regarding the question whether distillation should be allowed to be conducted when no distillery officer is present.

Resolution.

The order that distillation should never be permitted except in the presence of an officer of the department is a general one and should be strictly enforced in each distillery.

2. If an addition to the staff in the distilleries in the Bellary Sub Division is necessary to the carrying out of this order the Deputy Commissioners can draft Sub-Inspectors temporarily for this duty from the excess I. I. Establishment.
