Read the following paper:—

From the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Railway Statistics), to the Officiating Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Railway Branch, dated Simla, 23rd August 1897, No. 390 R. Stat.

In reply to your letter, No. 437 R. of the 6th July 1897, I am directed to communicate the formal approval of the Government of India to the spelling of the names of stations on the Peralam-Káraikkal Railway as noted in the margin, as also to the code initials entered opposite each, and to request that the distances of the stations from Káraikkal may be intimated to this office at an early date.

Ambagarattur.
Tirunalár	T.X.R.
Káraikkal	K.I.K.

2. As the code initials A.X.R. proposed for Ambagarattur are identical with those in use for Allúru Road station on the Bezwada-Madras Railway, if there are no objections, the code initials A.B.T. may be adopted instead.

3. With regard to the procedure to be followed for verification of the spelling of the names of railway stations and allotment of code initials, I am to invite attention to the Government of India Circular No. 6, Railway, of the 25th June 1897, and to state that authority for approval of the spelling of the names of railway stations and allotment of code initials has been vested in Local Governments.

ORDER—No. 628 R., dated 8th September 1897.

Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the letter read above will be forwarded by the Consulting Engineer for Railways to the Agent, South Indian Railway, for information and guidance.
