GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

Calcutta, the 24th March 1897

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras
Revenue Department.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 737 mis dated the 8th February 1897, suggesting that a ruling should be prescribed as to the stones which should be classed as precious stones and proceed free under article 87 of schedule II of the Indian Tariff Act, III of 1896.

2. I am to forward copy of the correspondence

Letter from the Commissioner of Customs, S. A. G. and Alkhan Bombay, No 5553 A dated the 7th November 1895 enclosure Letter from the Government of Bombay No 4620, dated the 11th June 1896.
Letter in the Finance and Commerce Dept. No 3422 S R., dated the 9th August 1896.

noted on the margin for which it will be seen that the Government of India have decided that in relation to the stones generally known as precious stones the stones generally known as "country stones" in Bombay, which in all the semi-precious stones (agates, cornelians, amethysts, and so forth) should also be classed as "precious stones" and exempted from duty.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant.

J. E. Carr

Assistant Secretary to the Post Office Ordered that a copy, with copy of the letter to which it is a reply, and of the correspondence cited in paragraph 1, be forwarded to the Government of Bengal and to the Chief Commissioner of Bihar for consideration.
