REVENUE DEPT

To

His Excellency the Governor in Council,
MADRAS.

The humble Memorial of Sengotavala Gounden, late Monyagar of Yamapully Village, Tiruchengode Taluk, Salem District.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY—

Your humble Memorialist most respectfully begs to submit for your kind and benign consideration and such action, as may be deemed fit, his very unfortunate case with full details, for redress.

That the Monyagar's post of Yamapully fell vacant in the month of January 1896, when your Excellency's Memorialist and the present nominee as well as several others did apply for it. The Sub-Divisional Officer of Namakal nominated one Rungappah Naicken of no merits for the post with orders that he should hold the place on probation for one year until he learns Tamil well, to qualify himself for it, rejecting that of Memorialist's application, and his claims thereto.

The Memorialist then preferred an appeal to the acting Collector of Salem, on the 29th July 1896, setting forth his reasons therein, and the acting Collector looked into the records of the case, cancelled the order of Namakal Sub-Divisional Officer and appointed Your Memorialist for the post (vide order No. 5731 dated 20-10-96).

Enclosure.

The above named Rangappah Naicken had, in turn, preferred an appeal to the Board of Revenue against the order of the acting Collector.

That the Honorable Board in revising the papers connected with the case, restored the appellant Rangappa Naicken to the post, apparantly prejuidicing Your Excellency's Memorialist's interests.

That the Memorialist owns extensive lands paying 80 Rs. khist annnally to Sircar, holds a permanant house in the heart of the village in which he had to work, and can read and write Tamil very well: these points the Honorable Board failed to consider over. The said appellant possesses no land, nor a house of his own in the village neither can he read nor write Tamil, nor has he any claim for the post, since he is one of the sons-in-law of the late permanant incumbant. Your Memorialist begs therefore to submit that the lien he referred to for the post, is not a lien in its strictest sense; for if the late Monyagar had left any issues, any one of his sons could claim the post under heriditary right, and the appellant (present nominee) is not the rightful claimant for the post.

That your Excellency's Memorlalist's case is different from that of the present nominee. His grand-father and great grand-father had held the post in question for upwards of 60 years and the sunnuds filed by your Memorialist in support of this allegation clearly support his lien for the vacancy, besides the other qualifications he had already pointed out.

That the Memorialist had held the post for nearly a year and discharged his duties without a flaw and to the satisfaction of the Tahsildar of his Taluk and the certificate your Memorialist had from the Tahsildar in approval of his services is herein enclosed for your Excelleucy's information.

For the foregoing reasons your Excellency's humble Memorialist begs to submit, that the interference of the Board, in depriving of your Excellency's Memorialist's post is unreasonable and against the administrative policy of the Board, in as much as, the Memorialist is the lineal heir to the post.

Under the circumstances your humble Memorialist most respectfully begs to appeal to your Excellency that justice will be rendered by causing a full inquiry to be made into his case.

For such act of charity your Excellency's humble Memorialist shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.
