Transfer of Services.

Sanctioning for a further period of one month and a half the transfer of the services of Mr. G. F. F. Foulkes, Deputy Conservator of Forests, 4th Grade, to the Cochin Darbar.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From F. A. NICHOLSON, Esq., Acting Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cochin, 25th February 1897, Ref. A on C. No. 619.

In continuation of past correspondence on the subject of the deputation of Mr. Foulkes to Cochin for three months to inspect and report on the forests of that State, I have the honour to forward herewith, for the orders of Government, copy of an application from the Diwan for an extension of this period by a month and a half on the same conditions. In doing so I beg to state that, from what I heard when at Cochin in December last, I was in doubt whether the full inquiry and report required of Mr. Foulkes could be concluded within the three months allowed, and I therefore support the Diwan's request for an extension of the period of deputation.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Diwan of Cochin, to the Acting Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Ernakulam, 19th February 1897, No. 557.

With reference to your telegram of the 18th instant, I have the honour to state that Mr. Foulkes does not find it practicable to complete the inspection of the forests of the State and to finish his report thereon in three months and an extension of his period of deputation appears to be absolutely necessary. I request, therefore, that you will be so good as to move the Madras Government to extend the period by a month and a half on the same conditions.

Endt. No. 577.

Referred to the Revenue Department for favour of early report.

8th March 1897.

A on C. No. 619.

Resolution—Forest Mis. No. 248, dated 13th March 1897.

In reply to the above reference, the Board submits that Mr. Foulkes' services can with difficulty be spared; but, in the circumstances, the Board resolves to offer no objection to the short extension asked for by the Cochin Sircar.
