FURTHER PAPERS.

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

Paper mills existing in the Madras Presidency on the 31st December 1896

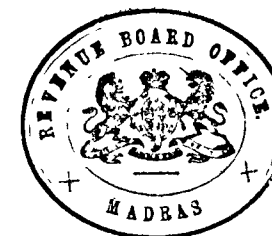

Province	District	Names of Mills	Date of establishment	Amount of capital expended	Average daily number of hands employed	Quantity	Value	Description	of raw material from which made
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Madras	(a) Avanteapur	Two mills in established since 80 years exact date not known			Four per mill or 8 in all	3,200	Rs 360	Country paper also fibre, old gunny bags, well ropes, cloth &c.
		One mill in South India the mill has been in existence from a very long time			Three men employed for a period of 10 months	300	30	Country rough paper unfit for writing	Old useless papers & pieces of gunny

(a) The decrease in the number of mills and in the quantity and value of outturns is attributed to the inferiority of the paper manufactured and want of demand.

(b) The period mentioned in the statement received from the Commissioner for the preceding year is eight months. He has been requested to explain the variation.
