SIR,

With reference to your memoranda nos. $\frac{A}{473990}$ + $\frac{A}{474721}$ dated 10th & 22nd March 97, I have the honor to report that lists of Pensioners already registered in this office for employment have been sent to the collectors of the affected districts & the Pension Paymasters of those districts have been directed to personally call upon the Chief Civil Officers of their districts and submit lists of pensioners suitable for employment & to correspond with other Pension Paymasters with a view to obtaining suitable Pensioners from neighbouring districts.

2. A general list is now being printed by this office, giving the names of Pensioned Native Officers and Noncommissioned Officers suitable for this Special work, Copies of which will be submitted to you and forwarded to all Civil Officers.

3. Your memoranda under reference are herewith returned as desired.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

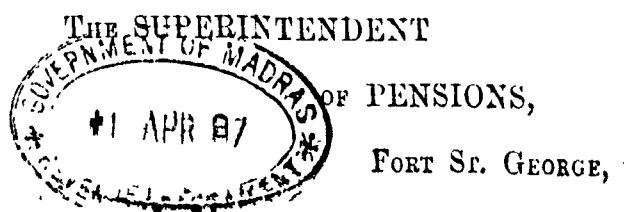

R. F. R. Formby Captain,

Superintendent of Pensions.
