My dear Mr Paterson

In continuation of my last letter, I beg to bring the following few lines for your honour's favourable consideration.

With reference to the letter No. 20 from this dated 22nd Sept 1897 from the Government which informs me that I cannot be appointed as deputy Collector for sometime to come if at all and as I will be 25 years of age before there is any likelihood whatever of my appointment, I am advised to seek
