PETITION

The humble appeal petition of B. M. Subramania Aiyar Son of Muthusamy Aiyar, late Village munsiff and Nattamai of Ballagunda, Dindigul Taluk, Madura District, now residing in West Chittrai Street, door no 116 Madura Town.

Most respectfully Sheweth.

That, I, petitioner most respectfully beg to submit this my appeal petition against the order of the Revenue Board, Contained in their Proceedings, No 2293, Misc Dated 24th June 1897, Land Revenue declining to interfere with the discretion of the Local Officer in not allowing me to enter upon the duties of the office of Village Munsiff of Ballagunda, on what is called unjustly "Administration Grounds", while they (the Board) themselves recognise the superior right of this petitioner, and that Regulation II of 1831 and not Act III of 1895 applies to the petitioner's case.

Vide Exhibit I

2. A reference to the papers now submitted seperately by Book Post, will clearly show what they mean by "Administrative Grounds" in the absence of any specific wording in the order now appealed against.

3. I have to urge, if I am right that those Grounds to mean simply that, because I hold no Pattah Lands in the village, I could not be entrusted with the duty of Collecting Government Kist of a large village as Ballaguda whose annual Basiky Cowle up to Rs 8000. — was split at the recent village revision.

4. To this ground I beg to submit, that the Honorable Board have evidently ignored the fact of my voluntary offer of giving Security of any kind to any amount whatever, the Administration Officers may call on me to offer for the due performance of the village duties (vide Exhibit II) contained at the Revision.

5. The Board has evidently admitted my Superior title to the office to that of the respondent, the present officeholder, and disqualified me on no other other ground, but the above.

6. Under Regulation of 1831 the office is hereditary, and must descend from father to son, and if the father is disqualified as in the present case he is, the Board's Standing orders No 178 clause II sub-clause 3 and 4. reads it imperative that the son should be appointed heir, and registered as office-holder even in cases where it is undesirable to appoint the heir, in which case, the son has to be registered as office-holder, & a gumastah appointed. But the present petitioner being in every way qualified, the Standing orders of the Board of Revenue, above quoted, apply with great force, and allow of no alternative, but to appoint the present petitioner.

7. The respective qualifications of both of us are given below

8. My age is 30, whereas Respondents age is 58. His hands are shaking (vide Exhibit III) He does his duties of Nattamai duties by proxy. He is a person Convicted of rioting and Sentenced to Rs 100, fine which Conviction was upheld in appeal
