Rev. Secy.

Sir,

The Executive Committee of the above fund request me to ask whether Government would kindly permit the printing at District Presses, free of cost, of all circulars, forms of accounts &c. connected with the collection and distribution of funds by the various District Committees. The amount of work required will not be large and apart from the saving thus effected, the convenience, - especially in those districts where private presses do not exist or are inefficient - will be

Requesting the Board of Revenue to direct Collectors to allow the circulars and forms of accounts, connected with the collection and distribution of funds by the various District Committees of the —, to be printed at the District Presses free of cost.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from H. BEAUCHAMP, Esq., Honorary Secretary, Indian Famine Charitable Relief Fund, Madras Branch, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 15th March 1897:—

The executive committee of the above fund request me to ask whether Government would kindly permit the printing at District Presses, free of cost, of all circulars, forms of accounts, &c., connected with the collection and distribution of funds by the various District Committees. The amount of work required will not be large and apart from the saving thus effected, the convenience—especially in those districts where private presses do not exist or are inefficient—will be very considerable.

ORDER—No. 197, Revenue, dated 24th March 1897.

Miscellaneous.

The Board of Revenue will direct Collectors to allow the circulars and forms of accounts to be printed at the District Presses free of cost.
