male minor is vested in the Court acting under the Court of wards. Thus neither ~~enactment~~ enactment provides for the interference of Govt. in cases of this nature; but the Govt. as the head of the administration has the right to interfere whenever it considers such interference necessary.

In the present case the Bodogoda Estate seems to be worth Rs 3000 a year, excluding the parishkush and cesses.

The Court of wards administration Report ¹⁸⁹⁵⁻⁹⁶ shows that in that year a sum of Rs 2441 was spent on account of the maintenance and education of the ward.

The minor's mother says that the minor is allowed only Rs 200 for his monthly expenses. It is not known what Mr Chatterjee was paid;

but it must be much less than Rs 500 which is proposed to be paid to Mr Moss & which the petitioner states the State is unable to bear. Further as the minor is only 12 years old, Mr Chatterjee who ^{is stated to} be known to Mr Moss & Telugu well, will probably be more useful to him than Mr
