The facts state as follows:-

The Sub. Coll. has issued orders assigning to Talayaris certain Police duties and to Vettigane the duties of the sea-vengar. The Tahsildar has issued circulars to villages communicating these orders. Under these orders the Vettigane are required to proceed to the several hamlets of each village every day, remove the refuse to the outskirts of the village and keep them clean. This is a work which is not possible for twice as many men to do. The Talayaris who ~~now~~ ^{once} held the position of orderlies to Village Magistrates have been ordered to forsake their old masters and serve Station House Officers. It is not clear how Police Officers suffer till now for want of the help of the Talayaris. Without the help of the villages' Munsifs it is impossible for Police Officers to reach any useful work from Talayaris. Under the present arrangement ^{all that} the Talayaris do is to walk 10 or 15 miles attend upon the Station House Officers and supply them with straw, curry, millets. The above innovations are opposed to Act I of 1899 and seriously interfere with the work of village officers as shown.

Vettigans are now unable to carry "tappab" between villages. These village servants cannot now visit every hamlet and report the number of births and deaths occurring therein nor the number of persons suffering from various diseases. Two vettigans must always be on the mugo carrying these reports to the Dy. Tahsil-dar's office. Some of these people must help the Karnam in measuring lands. There is now no body to bring salaries of village establishments from the Taluk office, to take ~~accounts~~ of pound collections & accounts to the Taluk Office, to pay in the Taluk Treasury the land revenue collections, ifara and other revenues, to take charge of cattle brought to the pound, to serve summonses issued by the Village Magistrate, to attend on his official during the sittings of the village court, to attend on the Vaccinators &c. As the ~~old~~ duties of the Talasparis and the vettigans ^{were} ~~have been~~ settled when the British Govt. was established in the land the petre. prae that the Sub. Collr's orders instituting a departure from a long established practice may be cancelled.
