Miscellaneous.

Read letter from J. N. Atkinson Esquire, Collector, Madras District, dated 9th August 1896, R.C. no. 6655 of 1896 and the following references therein, dated 7th September 1896.

The Collector of Madras is requested, (1) to call upon the Chairman to state whether he is prepared to keep up the charity elsewhere, as the tank, for the upkeep of which the Chaw was originally granted, has been included in a Forest Reserve or (2) to show cause why the Chaw should not be resumed.

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. A charitable Sham covered by Title deed no 618 was granted for the upkeep of a tank in the village of Remidicherla, Vinukonda taluk, Ellichur District. As this tank together with the Sham attached to it, was included in the Bollapalli Forest Reserve and as the Shamdars have since been enjoying the piece of land, granted to them in lieu of the Sham, without performing any service, the Collector proposes the resumption resumption of the substituted Sham and the transfer of its assessment to the Taluk Board, Vinukonda, which had undertaken to devote it to the upkeep of a country in course of construction at Bonima-rayupalle. The Shamdars were therefore called upon to state whether they were prepared to keep up the charity elsewhere or to show cause why the Sham should not be resumed. In reply, they state that the Sham, which is leased out for dry cultivation yields an annual income of Rs 1-2-0, and that they are prepared to spend this amount on any charity in their village which may be specified.

3. In view of the fact that the tank, for the upkeep of which the Sham in question was originally granted, has been given up and

and that the amount now available for expenditure, viz, Rs 1-2-0 as reported by the Inam-dars is too small to be utilized by the Inam-dars for any specific charitable purpose, the Board recommends that the Inam may be resumed and fully assessed and the assessment thereof made over to the Taluk Board Vinukonda on condition that such small incomes may be allowed to accumulate and may be utilized, as occasion arises on kindred objects of charity or public utility.
