From

Collector & District Magistrate,

The secretary to the Board of Revenue

Land Revenue,

Madras.

Sir,

S. No. 150 of Allacheri, Arcot Taluk, measuring 4 cen⁶ and assessed at Rs 0-5-0 is an inam confirmed free as public Nandavanam in Title Deed No. 1531. At present there is no Nandavanam in existence and the land has been waste for the last 20 years. The condition of the original grant having been thus completely violated, I recommend that the inam may be resumed and fully assessed.

2. By Nandavanam inam is ordinarily meant an inam granted for supply of flowers to a temple; but in the Inam fair register, the inam is described as a "Nandavanam useful to people" and in the Vernacular quit rent register also it is classed as a dharmadayam. As a temple inam I could resume it myself, but as a charitable inam the Board's orders are required. If it is the latter the assessment is too small to be available for any other charitable object.

I have the honour to be,

sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) S. H. Wyne .

Resolution.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The Inam in question, though classed as personal in the Registers maintained in the Inam Commissioner's office, has been confirmed as a public Handoverman. The Collector explains this term, and shows how this particular inam is of a charitable nature.

3. As the Inam has been waste for the last 20 years in violation of the conditions of the grant, the Collector recommends that it may be resumed & fully assessed. In view of the fact that the assessment of the Inam (annua five) is too small to be utilized for any other purpose, the Board supports the Collector's recommendation.
